BIOGRAPHY OF CASPER HIRT

I am Caspar Hirt. That's my picture you see there on the opposite page. I was born August 3, 1820, in Stilli, Canton Aargau, Switzerland. My parents were very poor and had a great many mouths to feed, therefore, in 1848, I came to America, but not before I had personally engaged myself in the struggle of the Helvetic Government against her rebellious Canton (Sonderbund).

I settled approximately two years in Fremont, Ohio, Sandusky County, but being still dissatisfied with my status in life, I decided to travel to the very edge of this vast country, California. The numerous hardships I encountered on this trip were those symbolic of all pioneer ventures.

I became very prosperous in the "Golden State" but was not content. The Creator had endowed me with a wild and restless spirit, and try as I would, I never really did stifle it.

Then someone shouted "Gold, buckets of gold in Australia." This offered me a means to begin my travels once again. I was not in Australia long, however, before I decided to return to California. The necessary voyage across the Pacific was indeed exhausting for the food and water supply were consumed too hurriedly and the members of the expedition were forced to draw lots in order to decide whom should be the "meat" for the next meal. The captain selected the unlucky slip. Thank God land was sighted shortly after, preventing the unfortunate man's death.

1854, and I still could not settle down. The urge to travel and the memories of my native country that I carried in my heart led me to Switzerland. I visited there for a short while and then came once again to the United States, this time as a member of a large emigrating group. My home was now in Philadelphia and it was here that I married Fannie Verena Vogt. I was 34 years old at this time and Fannie was 28 (she was born November 24, 1826, in Villegen, Canton, Aargau, Switzerland).

Fannie and I moved to Riley Township in Ohio, where I threw away my wandering shoes and purchased a farm. I worked very industriously and soon acquired a vast estate. I became known as a respectable, reliable man in the community and served two years as township trustee. I was also very active in religious and political affairs, being a faithful member of the German Reformed Church and a staunch Democrat.

When I was 58 years old, I visited Switzerland for the last time. Now I had successfully crossed the Pacific Ocean twice and the Atlantic Ocean five times.

Fannie and I had nine children, eight sons and one daughter. I have listed them for you below.

1. John Henry, b Aug. 16, 1855; d Jan. 21, 1895.
2. Charles, b Feb. 2, 1857; d Sept. 28, 1884.
3. Samuel J., b Aug. 20, 1858; d Oct. 13, 1942.
4. Elizabeth (Anna Maria Elizabeth), b June 10, 1860; d April 14, 1949.
5. Franklin (Frederick Franklin), b Feb. 18, 1862; d Sept. 9, 1945.
6. Henry Albert, b April 20, 1864; d Oct. 22, 1884.
7. Edward Ursinuis, b April 20, 1837; d May 7, 1933.
8. Adolph, b April 24, 1869; d April, 1881.
9. Louis S., b Oct. 26, 1871.

In the severe winter of 1881 I contracted a bad chest cold and on February 3rd passed to my final resting place. Folks said I had been a thoughtful husband and father, a true American citizen, and a friend with a heart and hand open to everyone. Verena joined me on November 3, 1884, three years later.
